

Dipl.-Ing. Günther Jungkind,

General Manager of JG CONSULTING

- Main focus on Change Management and Re-Engineering of Supply-Chain Processes (Procurement/Logistics); amongst others in the areas of Facility Management/Real Estate, Travel, Logistics
- 28 years of experience in managerial positions in global companies

Education

- Study of Economics, Operations Research and Informatics at the Technical University of Karlsruhe; Germany. University degree as Dipl. Wirtsch. Ing.

Industry Experience

- Consumer Electronics
- Domestic Appliances
- Telecommunication/IT
- Medical Engineering
- Semiconductors

Focuses and Competencies

- Re-Engineering of Procurement- and Logistical Processes
- Integral process improvements; resulting in cost reductions and shorter process cycles in both procurement areas (bill of material and non product related)
- Definition and implementation of state-of-the-art procurement approaches/commodity strategy development
- Responsible for team-forming and team-building on a global scale; being aware that top performance heavily depends on capable and motivated employees.

Professional Experience within global companies

- Philips, The Netherlands; Senior Director Facility Management/Real Estate; definition and implementation of the sourcing scope of Facility Management/Real Estate
- Philips, Germany; Procurement Director for all non-product-related activities; responsible for leading and enhancing the non-product-related procurement activities for Philips Germany
- Philips, Austria; Procurement Director for non-product-related activities; responsible for setting up and leading the restructuring activities for Austria
- Nokia, Europe; European Logistics manager for Nokia Consumer Electronics; responsible for the distribution centers; definition and implementation of the direct delivery concept (releasing of national warehouses)
- Nokia, Finland; Travel Manager; definition and implementation of Travel strategy for Nokia Group
- Nokia, Europe; Procurement Manager for all non product related goods/services for Nokia Consumer Electronics
- Philips, The Netherlands; Purchasing Manager for the Division „Philips Telecommunications and Information Systems“ for Software, Hardware, Systems and Components
- Philips, Germany; Procurement Manager (Bill of Material) for a production site.